

Beta Alpha Will Meet Tonight

Beta Alpha Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Palos Verdes Peninsula, will hold a cultural and business meeting this evening, at 8, at the Palos Verdes Peninsula home of Mrs. Richard Hayes. Mrs. Richard Ragie will serve as co-hostess.

The program, "Our Own Home," will be presented by Mrs. Robert Gaylord.

Mrs. Richard Holland, service chairman, will finalize plans for the groups' adoption of a needy family for the Christmas season. The Chapter yearly provides gifts and Christmas dinner for such families.

Final arrangements for the Chapter's Christmas party will be made by Mrs. Gary Wires, social chairman. The party is planned for December 7. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gorman will be hosts to members and guests at 8:30 p.m. in their Palos Verdes Peninsula home.

University Women Will Hear Dean

"Student Unrest on Our College Campuses" is the topic for Richard Bernard, who will address the South Bay University Women. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Spencer Letts, 1637 Espinosa Circle, Palos Verdes Estates, this evening at 8:30.

Mr. Bernard is the assistant dean of students at Harbor Junior College and is well qualified to speak on the topic. He was the recipient of a Fulbright Scholarship recently and taught a year in Holland.

Due to the holidays, the books study group will be the only study group to meet this month. They will gather to hear Mrs. Richard Hughes speak on "The Books of Gerald Durrell," the animal breeder and trainer. This meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eugene Schreier, 24221 Stanhurst, Lomita at 8:30 p.m.

Beta Gams to Hear Program, Plan Dinner

Preceptor Beta Gamma chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, will meet at the home of Mrs. Marshal Shirley, Wednesday, December 11 at 8 p.m. Preceding the business meeting, the cultural program will be given by Mrs. Edward Porter on "Novels" and their authors.

Mrs. Virginia Grummett will be hostess to the chapter's Christmas party on Saturday, December 14 at 7:30 p.m. After dinner, the members will have their "secret sister" gift revelation and the husbands will have a gift exchange.

Attending from this area will be Messrs. and Mmes. Charles Lockwood, Edward Porter and Miss Ruth Phelps.

In San Diego

Mr. and Mrs. John McVey, 920 Kornblum, drove to San Diego Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. McVey's mother, Mrs. John F. McVey. They were joined for dinner on the holiday by Miss Karen McVey and Daniel Timms.

Yule Party Set Dec. 14

'Tis the season to be jolly" and members of South Bay Alumnae Chapter of Delta Zeta will have a Christmas party to entertain their husbands and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman DeWitt will open their home at 23630 Oakrest Lane, Harbor City, on Saturday, Dec. 14, to the Delta Zetas and their guests.

Beginning at 8:30 p.m., a festive evening of fun with games, refreshments, and exchanging of gifts is planned. Holiday decorations will prevail throughout the DeWitt home.

Alums Slate Yule Event

Members of the South Bay Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta will observe a holiday tradition by bringing a wrapped gift for a child to the luncheon aboard the Princess Louise.

The gifts, along with a Christmas dinner, will be given to a needy family of ten members. An 11:30 social hour will precede the 12 noon luncheon. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Jerry Young.

Nevada Visitors Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Jacobi of Las Vegas were guests of honor at a recent dinner party hosted by Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Wisdom of Palos Verdes at The Tower atop Occidental Center.

Mr. Jacobi, of Southern Nevada University and an expert on X-ray technology, had lectured earlier at Little Company of Mary Hospital in Torrance, the hospital with which Dr. Wisdom is associated as radiologist.

Dinner guests in addition to the Jacobis were Dr. and Mrs. James E. Bauer of Palmdale, Mrs. Graham Hall of Torrance.
